Ronald McDonald House New York's Greek Division provides support services for families from Greece and Cyprus, as well as for Greek-Americans staying in New York City while battling cancer.

- The Greek Division is a vital lifeline to families traveling from all over the world to find the critical treatment for their children at New York City hospitals.
- The Greek Community embraces the House's families of all ethnicities as their own, helping them with emotional support and providing affordable housing while they stay in New York City.
